Students' blogs discuss why they chose HUC-JIR, their programs, courses, and faculty, student life, the HUC-JIR community, Jewish life, and experiences that are significant in their lives, including student pulpits, internships, and much more.

CALLING ALL ALUMNI!!

The Joint Commission for Sustaining Rabbinic Education, co-sponsored by the CCAR and HUC-JIR, in partnership with HUC-JIR's Department of E-Learning, offers all alumni the second year of Ten Great Texts – a program featuring 10 HUC-JIR scholars presenting texts from our classic and contemporary sources.

You can also access the archive of the first year of this series, as well as 23 archived courses, including mini-courses, sefira study, and more.
