The Hebrew Union College, the World Union for Progressive Judaism, the Israel Movement for Progressive Judaism, and the Union for Reform Judaism-NFTY

Cordially invite you to a:

"Melaveh Malkah"
An evening of prayer and song to honor the legacy of

Debbie Friedman (z”l)

Debbie Friedman: singer, composer, faculty member of the Hebrew Union College, devoted leader of Israel who transformed the way we pray and sing…
We join the hundreds of synagogues, day-schools, communal institutions, and individuals touched by her music in mourning her untimely passing.

Motzei Shabbat, January 29th, 2011, 6:30 p.m.
Blaustein Hall of Mercaz-Shimshon-Beit Shmuel; 6 Shamma St, Jerusalem

Join us in song and in prayer.

Evening will be conducted in Hebrew and English

Moderated by Rabbi Naamah Kelman

Musical Directors: Rabbi Josh Zweiback
Cantor Tamar Havilio and Rabbi Ken Chasen

For more information: contact

Jerusalem@huc.edu
Or
02 -6203333