FROM THE TABERNACLE TO THE CONSTITUTION:
HOW WE MAKE LEADERSHIP JEWISH IN OUR AMERICAN STORY

In 350 years of American history, Jews have completely redefined their experience of Diaspora. Meeting a truly New World, the American democracy and its Jews committed themselves to an unprecedented social contract.

Understanding the pillars of this relationship will help us leverage the opportunities and overcome the challenges that await us in next stage of this story. A unique one in American history.

Join us
SUNDAY, MAY 5, 9:00 AM - 10:30 AM
PENINSULA TEMPLE SHOLOM
1655 SEBASTIAN DRIVE
BURLINGAME, CA 94010

Explore with

DR. STEVEN WINDMUELLER
Following a career as a Federation and Jewish Community Relations Committee Director, Dr. Windmueller served as Director of the School of Jewish Nonprofit Management and faculty member at Hebrew Union College - Jewish Institute of Religion. From 2006 to 2010 he was Dean of the Los Angeles campus. Known as a political analyst, pundit and writer specializing in American Jewish politics, Dr. Windmueller is currently writing a book on Jewish power while continuing to teach. He blogs at thewindreport.com.

RSVP

CWEISS@HUC.EDU

This lecture is the second from the Peninsula Collaborative Learning Initiative brought to you by

Save the date
FINAL LECTURE IN THE SERIES: SUNDAY, OCTOBER 27, 7:00 PM
CONGREGATION BETH AM