SOMETHING SMELLS PHISHY

Look out for clues to outsmart The Phisherman

Even if the IRS would send you an email, would it be sent from this domain—\text{"service.govdelivery.com"}—Government emails end in \text{"gov"}, not \text{".com"}

When is the last time the IRS contacted you via email?

See any typos or grammar mistakes? See: \text{"by the your financial institution"}

Why does a confirming email for an Intuit purchase come from a \text{"LinkedIn"} account?

When is the last time you ordered a product and would be charged to talk to customer service?
