Questions? Contact Dr. Evie Rotstein, Director of the NY School of Education, at erotstein@huc.edu

Students will refine skills for classroom management and expand repertoire for the planning, implementation, and assessment of learning experiences. Topics covered include: building communities of learners, establishing consistent routines, goals and assessment, behavior and discipline, and responding to diverse learning styles. This is a graduate level course that requires 15-20 pages of reading each week as well as regular assignments completed outside of class time.

Please scan/e-mail your letter of recommendation to Dr. Evie Rotstein (erotstein@huc.edu), or mail to HUC-JIR, 1 West 4th St, New York, NY 10012, Attn: Dr. Evie Rotstein, NYSOE.

Letters of recommendation must be received by Friday, September 28, 2018.

Applicants will not be reviewed or accepted into the course without a letter of recommendation from a congregation/organization supervisor.
