PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Versatile musician and music instructor who can work in various settings and genres. Comfortable in both leadership and supporting roles. Enthusiastic, supportive, team-oriented faculty member. Strong background in Hebrew language and synagogue music.

EXPERIENCE

Adjunct Faculty, Hebrew Union College; New York, NY — 2019-Present

Taught music theory, piano and keyboard harmony to 2nd- and 3rd-year cantorial students; served on a task force to re-imagine overall musicianship curriculum; collaborated with faculty members to develop a coordinated, streamlined approach to musicianship instruction.

Conductor, Shir Chadash; Brooklyn, NY — 2017-Present

Conducted rehearsals and performances for a 40-voice volunteer chorus; selected repertoire, developed themes and programs for semi-annual concerts, booked guest artists; created an online program so that the chorus could meet safely during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Conductor, HaZamir Manhattan; New York, NY — 2010-2022

Lead and accompanied weekly rehearsals for Manhattan chapter of the HaZamir teen choral society; taught high-level Jewish choral repertoire, accompanied rehearsals and concerts, and taught students basic elements of vocal technique and Hebrew diction.

Music Director, Wicked Frozen; New York, NY — 2018

Played piano and directed the pit band for the show's Off-Broadway run; accompanied warm-ups and rehearsals; coached new cast members in order to integrate them into the cast quickly.

Choral Director, The Frisch School; Paramus, NJ — 2007-2012

Directed weekly rehearsals and concerts both at the school and around Bergen County; wrote all arrangements for general concert choir as well as smaller advanced jazz vocal ensemble.
